

Social Studies Department

611 H American Cultures (1 Cr.)

Grade 9

This course is an in-depth evaluation of the history and development of the nation. It examines the period of early exploration, colonial times, links to and freedom from Great Britain, Sectionalism, and the Civil War and Reconstruction eras. Topics include major political, economic, social, and foreign problems that faced the United States from pre-Columbian time to the 1900's. Students are required to write short papers, participate in class discussions, evaluate printed materials characteristic of the era, and demonstrate a working knowledge of events that contribute to understanding our modern society. Emphasis is placed on critical thinking skills.

612 CP American Cultures (1 Cr.)

Grade 9

The purpose of this course is to give students an understanding of the nation's social and economic growth, the development of political equality, the Intellectual basis of American life, and sectional differences in the United States from pre-Columbian time to the 1900's. Emphasis is placed on critical thinking skills.

621 H World Cultures (1 Cr.)

Grade 10

This course is an in-depth study of the development of Western Civilization. Topics include the cultural, historical, social, and geographical backgrounds of these people and their influence on the development of Western Civilization.

Civilizations of ancient man and the effects of the Scientific, Industrial, and Social Revolutions on the development of Western Culture are discussed. Students are required to write short papers, participate in class discussions, evaluate printed materials and various media, and to evaluate current event topics for an understanding of modern society.

Prerequisites: 85 in Honors American Cultures; 93 in Regular American Cultures; Department approval

622 CP World Cultures (1 Cr.)

Grade 10

This course aims to develop an understanding of the attitudes, problems, and culture of modern society. The study includes the development of the civilization of man, the formation of the first true civilization, the great cultures of ancient man and their influence on modern society, and the effect of the Scientific, Industrial, and Social Revolutions.

631 H 20th Century America and Beyond (1 Cr.)

Grade 11

This course provides students with an in-depth study of the United States in the 20th Century. Emphasis is placed on the development of the political process, involvement in World War I and II, the 20's, causes and consequences of the Depression, Korea, Vietnam, and the 60's. Independent assignments will be given throughout the year.

Prerequisites: 85 in Honors World Cultures; 93 in Regular World Cultures; Department approval

632 CP 20th Century America and Beyond (1 Cr.)

Grade 11

This course provides students with an in-depth study of the United States in the 20th Century. Emphasis is placed on the development of the political process, involvement in World War I and II, the 20's, causes and consequences of the depression, Korea, Vietnam, and the 60's.

641 H U.S. Civics (1 Cr.)

Grade 12

The U.S. Government/Civic Life Course will engage students in the study of four major areas of the United States, namely, the three major branches of U.S. Governmental system, Economics (including how citizens interact within microeconomics and macroeconomics), the Judicial System (include how the Nation judiciary affects courts, important case decisions and law), and Political Science focusing on how citizens and lawmakers interact through political thought and theory). A focus on current events is essential. This course will also include an in-depth research learning experience using Chicago/Turabian Citation style and format for research writing in History. In-depth assessments and projects will be included. Two Field Experience Projects are required. Research component required.

Prerequisites: 85 in Honors 20th Century; 93 in CP 20th Century; Department approval.

642 CP U.S. Government (1 Cr.)

Grade 12

The U.S. Government/Civic Life Course will engage students in the study of four major areas of the United States, namely, the three major branches of U.S. Governmental system, Economics (including how citizens interact within microeconomics and macroeconomics), the Judicial System (include how the Nation judiciary affects courts, important case decisions and law), and Political Science focusing on how citizens and lawmakers interact through political thought and theory). A focus on current events is essential. This course will also include a research learning experience using Chicago/Turabian Citation style and format for research writing in History. One Field Experience Projects are required.

636 CP Sociology (.5 Cr.)*Grades 11 and 12

This course offers a study of the structures of society and the role they play in the way people live and act. Students will explore, discuss and analyze culture, roles in society, social norms, as well as social structures and institutions and social problems today. The class encourages participation of students through class discussion.

639 CP The American Civil War (1 Cr.)*Grades 11 and 12

This course will summarize and present the major events and battles related to the Civil War in chronological order. It will set forth the major political issues and philosophies that set the stage for the Civil War, sustained the conflict, and continue to linger on to the this day. It will discuss life on the home front and its effects on today's society. Finally, the reconstruction of the country will be discussed and it's after effects.

646 CP World Geography (.5 Cr.)*Grades 11 and 12

This semester course will enable students to examine all aspects of geography, providing students with a concrete understanding of major geographic locations, world economic activities, historical and cultural aspects of societies, and an understanding of geographic tools and themes. This material will be explored using lesson presentations and the student text as well as supplemental readings, map studies, and current events.

648 CP Pennsylvania Heritage (.5 Cr.)*Grades 11 and 12

In this course, students explore historical, geographic, economic, and political aspects of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and our local communities. Map skills, current events, and appreciation of Pennsylvania's role in the United States are incorporated. Materials include a text and supplemental information via periodicals and online resources.